

The image is a composite of two Caravaggio paintings. The upper portion shows a young boy, likely a cherub or putto, leaning over a basket of fruit. The lower portion shows an older man with a beard and a halo, likely a saint, sitting at a desk and writing in a book. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

Macro Asilo
via Nizza 138, Roma

Antonino
Saggio
Lectio
Magistralis
Caravaggio
Dal basso
verso l'alto

Venerdì 14.06
ore 18.00-20.00